

Southborough May 27th 1773. The Selectmen of Said Southb^o have at the desire of a Kumber of persons laid out a Road which is as follow Viz. beginning at a heap of Stone on the southerly side of the Road leading by the now dwelling house of Nathanael Gibbs which heap of stones is the N. Ely corner of his land lying on the southerly side of Said Road and from thence the road as laid out ^{now} runs southerly two rods in width on the land of Said Gibbs for some way and then enters on the land belonging to the heirs of Benjamin Morse & then on the land supposed to belong to Ezra Taylor Esq^r. Extending a straight line from Said Stone ^{as laid out} which is on the Easterly side of Said Road till it comes to a Black Oak Tree marked ^{on 3 sides} at the foot of rising ground a little easterly of the Old Trod Road then it runs S. Ely to a black Oak Tree marked on 3 sides then about 14 rods to a stake and stone where an old stump was in the line of Said Taylor land being on the Easterly side of Said Road and then runs to a black Oak Tree being the N. W. ly corner of the land of Isaac Fairbanks, then running on the S. W. ly. side of Said Fairbanks land about six rods to a black Oak Tree then running as the path is now trod about 10 rods to a Black Oak Tree marked on the S. Ely side of Said Road as now laid out & then about 8 or 9 rods S. W. ly to a White Oak Tree marked on the southerly side of Said Road thence S. W. ly to a white oak ^{marked} on the same side of Said Road then S. W. ly. to and crossing a brook called Pine Hill meadow brook and Extending a straight line from the last mentioned Oak till it comes to a heap of stones on a ridge by and on ^{the} southerly side of an old house near the old trod path easterly of the house of David Morse ^{Jun^r} then runs to a stump and Rock by a wall by the side of the old trod road then running southerly near as the same runs to a wild cherry Tree being a bound of land on the Easterly side of the Road as now laid out full two rods in width then running southerly leaving the Road on the Easterly side of an Orchard belonging to David Bruce ^{Jun^r} or on the land reserved for

for his maintenance two rods wide & to extending the same width till it comes to the House where Joshua Kendall lives and from ^{thence} runs westerly near as the path is now trod leaving the fence on the southerly side of the same for the bounds of said road which is continued the same width till it gets to the westerly side of the land belonging to the heirs of Benjamin Morse and meets the Road as formerly laid out to said land which Road as we apprehend is laid thro' lands that had a Reserve made in & thro' the same for a Road and is now offered & submitted to the Town for their acceptance
